SOME MOTHER'S CHILD.

At home or away, in the alley or street,
Whenever I chance in this wide world to meet
A girl that is thoughtless, or a boy that is wild,
My heart echoes sadly: 'tis some mother's child.
And when I see those o'er whom long years
Have rolled,
Whose hearts have grown hardened, whose
Spirits are cold,
Be it woman all fallen, or man all defiled,
A voice whispers sadly, "Ah! some mother's child."
No matter how far from the right she hath strayed;
No matter what inroads dishonor hath made;
No matter what element cankered the pearl;
Though tarnished and sullied, she's some mother's girl.
No matter how wayward his footsteps have been;
No matter how deep he is sunk in sin;
No matter how low is his standard of joy;
Though guilty and loathsome, he's some mother's boy.

That head hath been pillowed on tenderest breast;
That form hath been wept o'er, those lips have been pressed;
That soul hath been prayed for in tones sweet and mild;
For her sake deal gently with "some mother's child."
—Larkin Mullins in Richmond (Ky.) Register.

STRAY SHOTS.

Daniel James, of Bushon, Ill., has been trading in real estate this winter, and is now the owner of one of the best small farms in Coles county, Ill.

Trimble & Turner, of Mt. Sterling, are doing a good business in horses and mules in Memphis, Tenn., having sold several car loads during the season.

Howard Trimble, formerly of Menifee county, is now located in Kansas. His brother, Thomas, has just finished his school in Illinois, and is now visiting his father's family at Pomeroyton.

Frank Combs, formerly of Clemm, of Terre Haute, Ind., is nearly blind and financially on his last legs. He is thinking of taking his invalid wife and going back to Kentucky to spend the remainder of his days "with his people."

King Cotton is again on top. One year ago the fleecy staple was selling at 5 cents a pound, but at present it is quoted at 10c. It will mean millions of dollars to the south, whose financial condition is now said to be the best since the war. With expansion and the Nicaragua canal the south will again be the most prosperous section of the western world.

Harlan and Clarence Swango, Swango, Ill., are engaging in breeding Hereford cattle. All their herd are pedigreed and they have some very fine animals. They recently purchased a registered bull for $800. He weighed 2000 pounds. They sold their calves at weaning time last year at an average of about $100 per head, the most of them going to cattle ranches in Texas.

Wigfall O'Hair, of Paris, Ill., has handled over 18,000 head of cattle in the last two years and only lost two head. The past season he has handled 1,000 head of mules. Besides being the biggest stockman in that section of the state he is also the best hunter, and his kennel contains fox hounds that could not be bought for $100. His hunting horse is Kentucky bred, and few fences stand in his way when he is giving reward a chase.

Poor old Kentucky! During the last four years of her only Republican rule her treasury has been plundered, her revenues depleted, her school fund diminished and her good name everlastingly disgraced. It will take the people of that state a generation to retrieve her former prestige and set the commonwealth right before the country at large. In traveling over a half-dozen states recently, your correspondent has yet to find a man who does not condemn the action of Taylor and his armed assassins.

PAPER TRUST

A Menace To Education—Repeal of Duties Proposed.

The newspaper man of the country will rejoice to learn that Representative Devries, of California, recently introduced a joint resolution with object of the repeal of duties on white or printing paper and the material from which it is made, and directing the attorney-general to proceed under the anti-trust law against those maintaining a monopoly in such paper and material. The resolutions recite that the existing duty of 80 per ton greatly aids in the maintenance of the monopoly; that the price of paper has been increased 60 per cent to the consumer, and this result is a menace to popular education and the dissemination of information.

IN DEFENSE OF OUR MOUNTAINS

Richard T. Jacob Tells of a 500 Mile Trip Through Northern Kentucky and of His Hospitable Treatment.

In the year 1882, as a candidate for the clerk of the court of appeals against Capt. Tom Henry, I made a circuit of 1, I think, fully five hundred miles through Southeastern Kentucky. I had already traveled a considerable distance in North eastern Kentucky. Necessarily I came in contact with a large number of the people of those who voted for and those who voted against me, and in these days of vituperation and abuse of these noble people I feel that it is a duty I owe to them to lift up my humble voice in their behalf irrespective of their party proclivities.

At Mt. Vernon when I went to settle my bill I was told that it was already attended to for both myself and animal. A gentleman next day went fifteen miles so I could not lose my way to a speaking appointment in Jackson county. A gentleman took me to his house to stay that night. As he approached his cabin he said, "My home is humble, my fare poor, but (with the air of a Chesterfield) such as it is it is at your service." I told him that as a soldier I had been accustomed to hard service and hard fare, but that his cordial welcome was more to me than the best of houses and fare without it. He then asked me to lie down, as I looked tired and needed rest, while his wife prepared food. I mention this particularly, as it was what happened through the whole 500 miles. The genial, kind, chivalrous welcome everywhere, without a cent of cost, as they would have regarded it as an insult to have offered it.

Now in regard to the slur of that local paper about their filling up on bad liquor. To my astonishment and I think from memory that the whole of that 500 miles in every town and village was under local option law. As I did not use stimulants, that did not set me back. My distinct recollection is that I saw in the whole journey but one drunken man, and this did not differ until I got into bluegrass region at Richmond, Ky. "To the stranger within their gates" they were chivalrous beyond degree.

A democrat, that is, one who opposed me, as I was an independent democrat at the time, and who rode with me to my next appointment from Pikeville, asked me if I had not noticed some little stir while I was speaking at that place. I answered yes. He said some persons without thought wanted to get a half-witted fellow to answer me. Then my opponents went to them and said I was a gentleman and that I should not be insulted. It was not only at that point, but at all points.

In Northeastern Kentucky one evening a drunken man commenced interrupting me. I noticed two gentlemen go and take a seat by him. I was told afterward they said to him, "We will throw you out if you don't keep quiet." In one of the Athens of the state during a speech I was not at all well, and was very much annoyed by a drunken man and exhibited my annoyance, and that appeared to please the crowd, and they hoisted with him. Among the chivalrous and noble people of the mountains this would not have been permitted for one moment. We may well take a lesson from them for our great benefit.

They are spoken of as red handed murderers and of shooting men from ambush. They are quick-tempered, and some of this charge is too true. Is this any truer of them than day by day the papers here and in all parts of the state speak of cowardly and dastardly murders. Unfortunately this is true, not only of the mountains in this state, but every state in the Union. The purifying influence of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is needed not only in the mountains of Kentucky, but all over this great country. Dr. Guerrant and other noble soul-winners, irrespective of creeds, are preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the men of the mountains, and when they are fully imbued with it these clashes of temper and violence will cease. In the meantime, "let people who live in glass houses" not cast the first stone. The complaint is that the mountain men went armed to Frankfort with their Winchester in their hands and pistols to their sides. Which is the highest ideal, the man who openly exposes his weapons, and that in accordance with law, or the man who violates law and has his pockets concealed, with perfect arsenal, and I doubt if there was scarcely a man in Frankfort but was weighed down with weapons. When men think their lives in danger, self-preservation requires them to be prepared. They claim that a mountain man shot Mr. Gabel. I don't believe it, and will not until it is proven beyond a shadow of doubt. I have my theories, which are not necessary to bring forward. Noble, generous and disposed to conserve the rights of all, are the brave men of the mountains. Full of dignity, and the most hospitable people on earth, I have always felt and believed that, and have given my testimony to this effect, before.—[Richard T. Jacob in Louisville Post.

Why is 1900 Not Leapyear?

There is more than one end-of-the-century puzzle. Not many persons are equipped to answer the puzzling questions which have already begun to be put as to why the present year is not a leap year, says the Denver Times. Leap year, as everybody knows, occurs once in four years. It is four years since the last one. Then why should the "leap" be missed from 1900? Here is the simple solution:

Of course, it is not exactly true that there are 365 days in the year. As a matter of fact, the number is 365.242,236. This amounts almost to an extra quarter of a day. Julius Caesar believed that he was evening matters up when he estimated that this extra time, unaccounted for in the calendar, would in four years amount to one day, and he, therefore, originated leap year or the insertion of an extra day once in four years.

This was all very well, but not quite exact. That is to say, according to Caesar's arrangement, 00744 of a day, or 669 seconds, was falsely added to every year. After 129 years this amounted to one whole day. As the centuries passed the error grew larger, until finally, in the Sixteenth century, it amounted to 12 days. Then Pope Gregory XIII undertook the revision of the Julian calendar and got rid of these 12 days by suppressing leap years for three consecutive centuries and deciding that every fourth century should be leap.

There were riots in opposition to the new calendar; in fact, the Greek church still uses the old one.

The years 1700 and 1800, which by ordinary rotation of four years should be leap, were not, so this year 1900 will only have 365 days instead of 366 days. But the year 2000 will be a leap year.

Everybody knows that a year is leap as soon as the two last figures of its thousands are divisible by 4; 1874, 1888, 1892 and 1896 were leap years, the numbers 72, 88, 92 and 96 being divisible by 4.

The years 2100, 2200 and 2300 will not be leap; the years 2000 and 2400 will be.

This Gregorian calendar will keep the seasons accurate enough for all practical purposes for a hundred thousand years.

After that we may have to make new arrangements.

1,000,000 DEATHS! FROM CHOLERA DURING THE PAST YEAR.

The Germs of this Fatal Disease are Lurking Everywhere! Thousands of Dollars Saved by This Wonderful Discovery.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars has been lost in the poultry business on account of the devastation among the flocks caused by cholera, croup, gape and other fatal diseases. There have been many remedies advanced, but none seem to be so successful as the American Poultry Mixture. This will cure chickens in the last stage of cholera and roup, and is excellent for gapes. Do your fowls suffer from violent diarrhea, dropping of the wings, stupor or excessive thirst? These are the first symptoms of cholera. Cholera is a germ disease and being infectious spreads rapidly through the entire flock. Take time by the forelock; don't stop to experiment with unreliable or untried remedies. Use this mixture at once and the sanitary measures they recommend in connection. Don't give the fowls up. Cholera is a terrible disease but this remedy cures it every time. It is also guaranteed for roop, which can be told by hoarse breathing, swelled eyes, discharge at the nostrils, resembling catarrh. Fifty dollars is offered for any case the Mixture will not cure. If some of your fowls are diseased it will prevent the rest from catching it. Try it. It is cheap, reliable and effective; a scientific preparation, goes more than three times as far as any other remedy; does more good than all of them combined. It is used and endorsed by the most experienced and largest breeders of plain and fancy poultry in all parts of the world. The manufacturers guarantee every package or refund purchase money. If your druggist don't sell American Poultry Mixture, he's behind the age. In that case send $1.00 for sample box to American Mfg. Co., Terre Haute, Ind.

30 Days' Trial

The marvellous power exerted by my Electric Belt and Appliances, induces me to offer it to suffering men on 30 Days' Trial, so certain and that it will cure and that you will gladly pay for the use of it. To men who have battered their stomachs with drugs I want them to exercise their judgment and consider that Electricity is the greatest power on earth. He who sees current puts life and force into whatever it touches. The constant, steady life extended by my New Electric Appliances gives instant relief and never fails to cure Rheumatism, Backache, Kidney Troubles, Early Decay, Night Sweats, Lack of Nerve Force and Vigor, Nervous Debility, Underdevelopment and Lost Vitality. You may not have faith in it now, but WEAR IT FOR 30 DAYS and you will then realize why I have such confidence in it as to send it to you ON TRIAL. Write today for Illustrated Pamphlet with references and signed testimonials. Sent free in plain sealed envelope.

To Whom It May Concern:

The Ohio and Kentucky Railway Company has filed in the offices of the County Clerks of Breckinridge, Wolfe and Morgan counties, Kentucky, the maps required by law, showing the location of its railroad, and property lines are indicated thereon. Such railroad is now under contracts for construction.

Where rights-of-way have been acquired by contract, agreement, purchase or condemnation, the parties from whom same were obtained, and all other persons in any manner interested in any land covered by the right-of-way strip, or in property adjacent thereto, are hereby notified that the grading of the railroad is now in progress, and will be continuously prosecuted to completion.

The editor of THE HERALD would be delighted to hear that a dozen of his friends in different parts of the county are in the saddle soliciting subscriptions to THE HERALD, and working as earnestly in the matter as they do before election when they are soliciting votes for their favorite candidate. That would indeed be glorious news, and why should it not come to pass? When a dozen of our friends read this they have our consent to constitute themselves a committee and go at once to work. "But, hold on," suggests the imp of the office, "maybe you haven't got the dozen friends, and maybe that's the reason." The exclamation paralyzed us, we succumbed, utterly disheartened and disgusted. But hope springs eternal in the human breast and prompts us to ask you, dear reader, if you will be one of such a dozen?

GEN. OTIS said it is simply outrageous that the insurgents should begin fighting again just as he had them hopelessly scattered. The blamed cusses ought to stay whipped.

The gold bill has become a law, with a small streak of silver in it.

The late Kentucky legislature was the most expensive that ever assembled in the state. Very little legislation was done and that which was enacted had better have been left undone. Every act of that assembly tended to throttle the tax-payer and in the sweet subsequently he will swear—well, yes, he'll swear in every tongue of language he can command. Two bills—only two, mind, call for the expenditure of $100,000 each. And for what? Half of this sum is to defray the expense of detecting the murderers of Gov. Goebel and the other $100,000 is to arm and equip a new state guard—or, more likely to create some fat offices for the young men who are afflicted with that delightful disease diagnosed as "elegance of ease." But in country folk lore known as laziness. Add to this $200,000 the cost of maintaining a standing army, the junketing trips of the legislature, etc., and the aggregate is amazingly appalling. The murderer of Gov. Goebel should without doubt be hunted down and hung, but a much less sum would have answered all purposes—aye, have been more effective. And, as to the other $100,000 that was altogether uncalled for. When our present troubles end and Kentucky is once more her normal self, a state guard can be organized and the arms now in use utilized.—Kentucky is too poor a state to squander money in this wanton and reckless manner, and the burden is more than the tax-payer can bear.

The Morning Herald, published at Lexington, under the able management of Desha Breckinridge, has become one of the best papers in Kentucky, and the editorials which appear in it from day to day are unsurpassed in elegance of diction and directness of application. They are the product of his distinguished father, Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, and are so forceful as to call forth praise from the elite press of the east. But we are talking of Desha Breckinridge and the ability he has acquired in adding to the business of that paper and its improvement. He has made it a newspaper in the full sense of that term, and yet it is as clean in tone as the Topeka Capital, now being published on Christie lines by the Rev. Chas. Sheldon. Mr. Breckinridge is "up with the lark" in all modern ways of attracting business. Just now he has a scheme to send one young lady to the Paris exposition, for another a two weeks' stay at Hotel Chamberlain, Old Point Comfort, Va., for a third one a two weeks' stay at Rockcastle Springs, Ky., and for the fourth lady a week's stay at Torrent, Ky. The lucky ladies will be decided by ballot, and there are 49 contestants. For the two weeks ending Saturday night, the 17th, there had been 13,215 votes cast, which gives some idea of the circulation of the paper as each of the contestants received some votes. The expense to The Herald in the four trips mentioned will be about $500, but the increasing circulation justifies the outlay. Mr. Breckinridge is also the publisher of the Kentucky Stock Farm, devoted to the trotting and harness horse interests of the state, and he will make of that paper the same success he has of the Morning Herald. Send for free sample copies of both papers and learn all about them.

Under the caption, "In defense of our mountains," there is a lengthy article in this paper from the pen of Col. Richard T. Jacobs, ex-lieutenant governor, in which he refutes the charges made against the mountain people in the metropolitan press. The editor of this paper had the honor of serving 12 months in the 9th Kentucky cavalry, commanded by Col. Jacob, and he is today proud to know that the colonel is still the same humane honest gentleman in civil life that he was as a soldier. As a soldier and an officer every enlisted man and every subordinate officer in the regiment loved Col. Jacob. He was a kind, good man in those days, and we hope he may live to a ripe old age.

There are two sides to the Porto Rican question, but the republicans in congress are on one side and the whole American people are on the other.

The tenth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will be held at Louisville, Ky., May 30 31 and June 1, 2 and 3, 1900, and it is thought that the crowd which will be brought together on that occasion may be even greater than that of the grand encampment of the G. A. R., held at the same place only a few years since. Wolfe county will send her quota, and to that end Capt. Lykins has issued an order assembling all the Confederate Veterans in Wolfe county at Campton on April 2nd. All honorably discharged Union Veterans are cordially invited to attend the Campton meeting, and for one the editor of this paper will certainly attend if the circumstances and his state of health permit. We know we should enjoy it. But read Capt. Lykins' order and let there be a full attendance of Cox Camp.

The present congress should pass a bill to exempt paper and all raw material entering into the manufacture of paper from all duty. The paper manufacturers of this country have formed a trust and doubled the price of newspaper within the last few months. The blow falls heavily upon the country newspaper especially, and is a solar plexus hit at education, for, in a general way there is no element of education so broad as the newspaper. After mastering the A. B. C.'s many of the best business men of the country have attained their education through reading newspapers. To increase the cost of paper will work a serious hardship upon the poor country publisher, and unless he commands a good subscription and advertising patronage, he must ultimately go to the wall. The attention of Senators Deboe and Lindsay, and Congressman Tom Fitzpatrick and the others in the Kentucky delegation, should lend their assistance to any measure that will weaken the trust in its effort to throttle the press of the country.

WANTED, 500 MEN,

Who owe me on account, to call and pay same. I need the money and can wait no longer. Please do not ask for credit if you owe me on account, for I can not and will not, grant you credit any longer. I have

A FULL AND COMPLETE LINE

OF GENERAL MERCHANDISE,

and will not be undersold when I get the cash. All taxes due me must also be paid now, because to indulge you further hurts us both.

? How many will respond to my call? I shall wait and see. Doors open from 6 o'clock a. m. to 6 p. m.

Respectfully, &c.,

H. F. PIERATT.

FINE SHOES,

I have just received the finest line and greatest variety of

LADIES' AND GENTS' BOOTS AND SHOES

ever brought to the mountains, and having bought them before the recent rise in leather, I am prepared to save my customers money on every purchase they make. I want the ladies, especially, to examine my stock. For the price, I can show them a front-lace shoe that is a world-beater. It is, indeed, a beauty, and to the touch makes one feel that the shoemaker got hold of the kid-glove stock.
Respectfully,
JOHN M. ROSE.

THE HERALD.

GREATEST WEEKLY

A FARM JOURNAL

Great Offer. From now to Dec. 1903, Nearly 5 Years.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for THE HERALD one year ahead for only $1.00 both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now until December 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

This offer should be accepted without delay.

Uncle Pres Trimble had a ham stolen from him on Monday night of last week.

Wiley Perkins attended court at Mt. Sterling on Monday, but did not take down any stock.

Nathan Hollon, of Lane, passed through here Saturday, en route to visit Harry Murphy, of the Murphy fork.

Harlan Power, of Salversville, spent Sunday night with his brother-in-law, Wiley Perkins, Lacy creek.

FOUND—A purse containing 55c and key. Owner can get by calling on John Davis and paying 10c for this notice.

H. F. Pieratt on Monday sold to Alex (Dob) Higgins, colored, a gray mare about 10 years old for $32, equivalent to cash.

Red river was on a boom Monday and ties and staves are scattered from Lee City, in this county, to Clay City, Powell county.

The Day roller mill is this week up on grinding wheat for the first time since July, and part of that time the mill was run night and day.

LOOK OUT for the first signs of impure blood—Hood's Sarsaparilla is your safeguard. It will purify, enrich and vitalize your BLOOD.

Matt Sloan, the man who was hurt in the row at Lee City a week or so ago, was on Monday said to be better. Dr. Taulbee, his attending physician, was here on Monday, and so reported.

Eliza James last week sold to Monroe Nickell a strip of land, about three-fourths of an acre, lying in Dickville, and adjoining the property Mr. Nickell bought of F. M. Long for $100 cash.

The John H. Morgan Camp, No. 1198, Frisco, California, has written that it will attend the Confederate Reunion, in Louisville, May 30-31, June 1-2-3. They are coming east and west and north and south.

F. M. Long last Friday sold his steam saw mill to J. B. Amyx, of Sellers, and the latter will remove it about May 1. Uncle Dick will first finish his contract with Henry Pieratt, which will take until that time.

Uncle Jeff Rose, of Stillwater, was here Saturday and said he was still a candidate for assessor and would announce in THE HERALD soon. When he does we will throw him a bouquet of sweet smelling flowers.

Sam Taulbee was in town Monday and told "our man about town" that the 60 hands at the tunnel near Major Taulbee's, through the ridge dividing Caney and Red river, are all lying idle and waiting for the sunshine.

Wiley Perkins had the good fortune to have his herd of cattle increased on Monday night by the birth of three male calves, and all of them deep red, without a white hair. You can't keep a good man down, nohow.

F. M. Long got judgment against N. L. Ware at the last term of the circuit court on a material lien, in the sum of $236.60, and Commissioner Vansant offers the property for sale on Monday, April 2nd. Prof. Cord bought the property from Mr. Ware and now occupies it as a residence. But the presumption is that he will lose nothing in the transaction.

We this week mail THE HERALD to Geo. Taulbee, our former bright and interesting Lee City correspondent, who is now a corporal in Co. F, of the 12th United States infantry, and confidently expect to publish a letter from him at least once a month, or as often as he can get one to us. Such a letter would be especially interesting to the people of this section, and we suggest to him that he in such letter give a paragraph to each of the boys from this section who are now in the army around Manila. There are at least 20 or 30 boys from this and adjoining counties, and the people here would indeed be proud to hear from them as often as he could write. But George will realize the importance of this news and we shall expect a stunning letter every time he can write. Send one on receipt of this, George.

A telephone message was received at this place on Saturday morning, announcing the death of Mrs. Eliza Trimble on Friday night. Her death was very sudden and presumably from heart disease, but we are without particulars. Mrs. Trimble was the widow of Asbury Trimble, who was killed by Edward Hensley in this place in 1864, and was a brother of Uncle Pres. J. G. Frank, et al. Mrs. Trimble was also the mother of South Trimble, the present speaker of the house, and was a daughter of Jerry South, warden of the Kentucky penitentiary at Frankfort for several years.

On Friday night last some of the young people of our town gave Miss Cross, the music teacher at the academy, a little surprise party in the way of a candy pulling. The young men furnished the sugar and the young ladies by deft manipulation got it into toothsome candy, sweetly succulent. Those who participated were Misses Maggie Kash, Ora Swango and Nannie Bayes, the gentlemen being W. H. Kash, Curtis Rose, Sam Nickell and John Bayes. The scene of the event was the dormitory, mine host, Q. C. Daniel, and all went merry as a marriage bell.

Some thief entered the residence of Preacher Pike, on Sunday night the 11th inst., and stole three hams. They effected an entrance through a window that had a light broken out and a piece of cloth tacked over it. Mr. Pike thinks the culprit was a boy or a woman, as the tracks were smaller than a man would make. The general opinion, and we heartily endorse it, is that a man who would steal from a poor preacher dependent upon his parishioners for a support, would commit any crime in the calendar—do anything that is mean—even to throwing rocks at his grandmother.

A new law firm has just been formed in our town, the title of which is Kash & Kash, and the star performers are Rollin A. Kash and Wm. H. Kash. The first named gentleman slung his shingle to the breeze a year or so since, but the latter was only recently admitted to the bar. These young men are both capable and deserving disciples of Blackstone, and should receive a fair share of the patronage of this section. By their card in this paper it will be seen that they make collections a specialty, and non residents will do well to communicate with them.

The time of all who subscribed for THE HERALD March 4, is now out and they are respectfully urged to renew at once and take advantage of our club rate with the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal for 12 months, the Farm Journal, every month until end of December, 1901, and THE HERALD for 12 months. ALL FOR $1

Tom Graham, who moved from Gillmore creek to Floyd, Hunt county Texas, some five years ago, paid a flying visit to his old home last week, arriving on Wednesday and leaving on Friday. He had been to Virginia on business, and coming back by way of Lexington, he felt that he could not resist the temptation to pay his old neighborhood a visit, and therefore ran in as stated. He likes his western home very well, but says a man has to hustle. His wife is becoming reconciled to the situation, though until recently she was never satisfied. Tom says he planted six acres of oats and after selling $90 worth still had sufficient left for seed.

The amount required to keep the academy at Hazel Green, about $1,000, was subscribed on Monday and when counted up was found to exceed that sum. Our people are slow to move, but when aroused will contribute liberally as the excess in this instance demonstrates. The matter now goes before the national board of the C. W. B. M. at Indianapolis for final adjustment, and it is confidently hoped and believed that, considering the fact that the school was founded and has grown up at this place and is so well and favorably known throughout the length and breadth of the land, Hazel Green will retain it. Tell it to the people everywhere.

Mrs. Emily Lacy on Sunday killed a fat hen that had formerly been an extraordinary good layer. Thinking to ascertain the reason she had ceased to lay while in apparent good health, she made a close examination while dressing her to cook, and discovered a needle lying crosswise of the egg bag. That, of course, was the impediment to her usefulness, but it in no wise detracted from her edible qualities as a dinner dish, for she was as fat as could be.

"An Old Friend" is the title of Truth's supplement for March. This fine picture is a reproduction from the original painting by William Verplanck Birney, and is charming not only by reason of its sentiment, but because it is thoroughly characteristic of this painter's vigorous work. In size the picture is 17 1/2 by 25, and is printed on heavy, rough coated paper, suitable for framing.

HAZEL GREEN COLLEGE.

BY SAM WILSON.

You may talk about your colleges
Where knowledge most profound
Is stamped upon the pupil's mind
In cities much renowned.
But grander far is one I know
That decks the mountain scene,
And has ever been the beacon light
Of dear old Hazel Green.

It is a school where every youth
Can on life's after march
Point back with pride to where their
Thoughts, refined, were born.
And bless the hour when they first bathed
In wisdom's well, serene,
And drank at founts of learning from
The college of Hazel Green.

Still let its glories ever spread
Throughout Kentucky's clime,
Still let it be our pure delight
And principle divine,
Still let its teachings be to all
The purest, brightest beam,
Still let us strive to keep it here—
The college of Hazel Green.

The boys and girls should read the Farm Journal. It will help keep them on the farm. We will send it five years, the remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, to every one who will subscribe for THE HERALD; both papers at the price of ours only.

Judge G. B. Swango attended the burial of Gov. Goebel at Frankfort last week, and was one of the few permitted to see the face of the dead statesman. He also acted as pall bearer in moving the remains from the vault to the grave.

F. M. Long last week sold a house and lot in Dickville, a suburb of Hazel Green, to Monroe Nickell. The house contains five rooms and the lot is about 80x30 feet. Consideration $200.

Willie Alexander on Monday bought of J. T. Day a pair of dun mare mules, four and five years old and full sisters, for $150 cash. This was perhaps the best matched pair of mules in Eastern Kentucky, if not in the state, and they stood 15 and 15 1/2 hands high, respectively.

Mrs. Holly Nickell, of Gillmore creek, was reported sick on Monday. "Our man about town" did not learn the nature of her illness, but she was sufficiently so to require the services of a physician, and Railroad Physician Taulbee was called to see her.

Agents on salary $15.00 per week and expenses; the greatest agent seller ever produced; every stock and poultry raiser buys it on sight. Hustlers wanted. Reference. Address, with stamp, American Mfg. Co., Terre Haute, Ind. tf.

All who desire to wear nicely laundered shirts, collars, cuffs, etc., should call on Robert Cord, agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry, the work of which is superior to that of any laundry in the state. tf.

OUR GLORIOUS COUNTRY.

Have you watched its marvelous growth? If not, The Weekly Enquirer wants to study the strides it has made. The first census of the United States was taken in 1810. Since then every succeeding ten years. The result has been as follows:

Year.	Population.	Year.	Population.
1810.....	7,239,981	1860.....	31,443,321
1820.....	9,633,822	1870.....	38,558,371
1830.....	12,866,020	1880.....	50,155,783
1840.....	17,069,453	1890.....	62,622,250
1850.....	23,191,876

Here you have the figures of a basis of calculation. The problem now is: What will be the population of the United States, excluding recent acquisitions. The result is usually announced in July of the census year.

THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER is anxious to engage all in a study of their country. To this end it will distribute cash amounting to $25,000, for solutions received of the population of the United States Census, as follows:

To the first nearest correct guess received.	$3,000.00
To the second.....	1,500.00
To the third.....	750.00
To the fourth.....	500.00
To the fifth.....	250.00
To the sixth.....	200.00
To the seventh.....	150.00
To the next 10, each $100, amounting to.	1,000.00
To the next 50, each $50, amounting to.	2,500.00
To the next 100, each $25, amounting to.	2,500.00
To the next 500, each $10, amounting to.	5,000.00
To the next 1,000, each $5, amounting to.	7,500.00

2197 cash presents amounting to $25,000.00

In case of a tie, money equally divided.

Every guess on the above proposition must be accompanied by a year's subscription to THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER.

You can guess as often as you care to include subscription price to the WEEKLY ENQUIRER.

This contest will close a month before the result of the census will be known and officially certified by the Director of the United States Census at Washington, D. C.

Subscription price for the WEEKLY ENQUIRER (including guess) is only $1.00 a year. Eleven copies and eleven guesses for $10.00. For full particulars see WEEKLY ENQUIRER. Send all orders to ENQUIRER CO., Cincinnati, Ohio.

OLD PAPERS, Clean and Nice, for sale

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also a convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It cures inability to hold water and swelling pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up often during the night, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are diligent in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favor they put us to great inconvenience.

DAYSBORO DOINGS.

John Amys, of Sellers, was in Daysboro Saturday.

Frank Duke has purchased a fine bluegrass jack.

Uncle Amos Nickell is able to get out to church again.

Bob Brooks left here Monday for a visit to Menefee county.

Tom Amys has rented his State road farm to a Mr. Handy.

Frank Wilson, of the Red River fork, was in Daysboro Sunday.

George Oldfield has employed a first-class coal digger for this year.

Pete Everett Gullet, of Lee City, was attending church here Sunday.

Miss Jennie Amys, of Sellers, was attending church here Sunday.

Wayne Parks sold to Ves Norman a short two-year-old heifer for $20.

Clay Little, of Gillmore, has been visiting in Daysboro for a few days.

Mrs. A. M. Nickell, of Hazel Green, was visiting in Daysboro Sunday.

Wm. Esterling moved from Grassy to the farm of T. J. Amys in the deep hollow.

Miss Rosa Trimble, of Lacy creek, was visiting Miss Francis Fadden Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Fannie Osborn, of Morgan county, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duke a few days this week.

Ves Norman one day last week sold to Wayne Parks five acres of land adjoining Antony Fergusons for $100.

Jeff Oney, of Lacy creek, was in Daysboro Sunday, and was trying to show Walter Maloney all the sights.

South Stamper has rented his Amys farm to a trio of working men, Bruce Nickell, Wayne and Jim Parks.

Misses Sallie and Mollie Oney, Mollie Swango and Corrie Bas, all of the Swango Springs have been enjoying the meeting here.

Allie James, Jim Trimble, Shellie James, Curtis Rose, Jim Lacy and Boon Lacy, all of Lacy creek, have been attending church here for a few days.

Henry Miles will move this week to the Caney tunnel, and will at once begin work. Henry is an old miner and loves to burrow in the ground.

The "two Roses," of Lacy creek, we mean two of the charming daughters of Jo P. Ross, Misses Lillie and Stella, graced our little village with their presence Sunday.

There has been a meeting in progress here at the White school house conducted by Revs. Pike, Davis and Mrs. Ellen Swango. An unusual interest is being manifested, quite a number having professed sanctification or holiness.

Woodson Little being a good friend of ours, we would love to state that Woodson was not at fault in that disturbance at Lee City a few days ago in which he hit Mr. Sloan. From the best information we can get Mr. Sloan first started a "rough house."

Quite a number of Hazel Green beauties have been visiting in Daysboro in the past week. Among them we noticed Misses Elsa and May Nickell, Mary and Corda Brennenman, Pearl Day, Nevada Nickell and Clark Long.

Bud Little informs us that an Indian and the colored folks have been holding a meeting at the colored school house. But who ever heard of an Indian that would preach to a Negro or to any one else as to that matter.

The "Drake" said last week that he was in possession of a valentine that "Charlie" had wrote. He surely does not mean me, for I never did try to write but one and that was so many years ago that all the young folks cannot recollect it. But then as the D. A. is a kind of an incubating bird, I will leave him be for a month or two.

Boon Lacy, of Lacy creek, who has been doing the cooking for Jim Lacy Jr., for quite a while, came over to Daysboro one day this week to inform the friends of him that he had not been seen for several days. But we learned that Boon has located him somewhere in the neighborhood of the Swango Springs.

He Would Have No Other Kind.

John Miller, of Walnut Grove (better known as Caney,) Morgan county, was down on Wednesday to see Rose & Davis and get them to build him a road wagon. Three years ago he had them build him a wagon at a cost of $60, which he used continuously until a week or two days ago and then sold for $45. At his home he can get one built for $55, but he says he would rather have one made by Rose & Davis at $65, and if they could not build him one he would do the next best thing and buy from some one a wagon recently made by this firm, which, as wagon builders he thinks have no superiors. This speaks volumes for the workmanship of these gentlemen, and is prima facie evidence that they use only the best material in the construction of their vehicles. Every man who has used a wagon made by this firm is practically as warm in praise of the workmanship and material used by them, but not so profuse perhaps. However, they are all united in the opinion that if they would enlarge their plant and confine themselves to wagon building, they could and would soon monopolize the trade of the mountains. Orders ahead precluded the possibility of making Mr. Miller a wagon for some time, and he started out to buy one, as no other kind would suit him. He had his eye on two or three recently put up, and hoped to get one of them.

Music in the Air.

G. L. Sheppard and Eugene Harvey, two Winchester darkeys, who are employed on the railroad at the tunnel under Decret & Gill, contractors, paid our town a visit on Tuesday last and treated the citizens of this place to some of the finest instrumental music ever heard here and as good perhaps as was ever heard anywhere. The instruments they used in rendering this sweet music were French harps, but their music was so much better than ever heard here before that those who heard them pronounced them artists in their line. We always knew that Winchester was a good town, and contained many of the good things of this life, but we never before knew that it had such musicians. They took our town by storm and the music wafted on the breeze is still in the air.

They Have Located.

Under date of the 15th inst., Mrs. Maggie Kash writes from Burdette, Bates county, Mo., to have paper sent to that place, as they have concluded to locate there permanently. Her husband, Dr. Silas Kash, has had several calls and they think the prospect quite good. She wants all the back numbers of the "Dear old HERALD" since they left, but we find it impossible to send any one of them. She promises to write again as soon as they get settled down. They are hoarding at present, but will soon go to housekeeping. They send love to all inquiring friends, and hope through the paper to hear that all of Hazel Green's citizens are well.

The Y. P. S. C. E. roll has 50 members. The weekly prayer-meeting is held at the Christian church Saturday at 7:30 p. m. The following are the officers: President, Miss Mabel Gray Cross; Vice President, John R. Bays; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Nannie Mangel; Recording Secretary, Noah Cisco; Treasurer, Mrs. Dora Swango.

Elder Jim Tom Peratro is on route home and was at Waco, Mo., with his brother-in-law, Jim Cox, about a week since. From there they will go to Bush ton, Ill., to visit Mike Murphy and family, and thence home. They will arrive here about the first of April.

Mrs. Lizzie Kash, mother of Edgar and C. F. Kash, is said to be dangerously ill at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Millard Ritchie, of Maytown. I was reported yesterday that she would probably not live throughout the day. She has consumption.

John Savage, the painter, coal miner and general utility man, who has journeyed here for a year or so, on Tuesday moved to Lee City, where he has engaged to do some painting for Allison Ross and others.

Rev. H. D. Adams returned Monday from Frenchburg, where he preached on Sunday. He will preach at Old Grassy church on Saturday night and Sunday morning and afternoon.

Mrs. Eliza Kash and daughter, Miss Maggie, left for Jackson Tuesday for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Day, of indefinite duration. Dr. Kash has been there for some time.

Topics for sermons Sunday at the Christian church are "Jesus as He was and as He is" at 11 a. m., and "Soul Preservation" at 7:30 p. m. You are invited to attend both sermons.

Cal Cundiff tells us that 1,000 or more ties and staves were run out of Laurel on Sunday's tide.

Have you dried apples for sale? We should like to have a half-bushel.

Biggie Berry Book is an excellent little manual worthy of a place in every farmer's library. The book is condensed and practical, as valuable for the villager with his 10x12 berry patch as it is for the commercial berry grower with his twenty-acre field. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co. Philadelphia.

Mrs. Frank Cravens died at her home near Mt. Sterling on Monday, the 12th inst., of consumption. Mrs. Craven's maiden name was Lizzie Lykins, who was quite well known in this section, and many will regret to hear of her death.

The items about meat stealing should have appeared in THE HERALD of last week, and would have done so had they been reported. Why is it that the people will not report such things? Had these items appeared last week the thief or thieves might ere this have been apprehended.

THE BEST

Food for Intellectual Thought.

No man can read intelligently unless he knows the truth. In this time of "wars and rumors of wars" the greatest aid to intelligent thinking and the best food for intellectual thought is that newspaper which is greatest and best.

Important political issues are daily growing more important. An intelligent understanding of the policy of a nation or a great political party is something to be desired, and it is the duty of every citizen to thoroughly inform himself upon the leading topics of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is the greatest and best of all newspapers. Its telegraphic and cable news service exceeds that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and world-distant, fully authenticated facts.

The policies of the great political parties are now being formed and the candidates discussed. Now is the time to subscribe for the best medium of keeping in touch with the whole world—THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC.

No less worthy of attention is THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine. It is replete each issue with the best of special articles written by the best of literary talent. Its beautiful half-tone illustrations have already made it famous and their quality and quantity will be preserved.

News features of absorbing attraction are illustrated and enlarged upon in a manner equal to the high priced magazines. Events of current interest are set forth in entertaining style. There is humor in its pages, too, and for the benefit of the ladies the latest Paris fashions are each week exquisitely illustrated and described. The REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine is a standard.

The subscription price of THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is $1.00 per year. THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine is $1.25 per year. Both papers are now being offered at the low price of $1.50 for one year. To secure this low rate both must be ordered and paid for at the same time. Address all orders to THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis, Mo.

Gifts for Five Million Ladies.

The Most Remarkable Offer Ever Made by a Reliable Concern.

Editor HAZEL GREEN HERALD:

Please announce that for a limited time we will give, absolutely free, an elegant sterling silver plated sugar shell—choice of any of our 40c. patterns—to every married lady in the United States who will write to a letter stating that it is her first request for one of our souvenir gifts. We will promptly send illustrations from which selection may be made. There is nothing to pay. The gift is absolute.

Our object in making this sensational offer is to get a sample of Quaker Valley Silver to get into every home in the land. We believe it to be the most effective advertising drive that we can do. We will not send the sugar shells to lists of names. This is too expensive a gift to send to persons who don't ask for it themselves. Therefore, each lady will please send her own name only. Write to a family and none to children. Ladies, please write today, giving full post office address.

SOME MOTHER'S CHILD.

At home or away, in the alley or street,
Whenever I chance in this wide world to meet
A girl that is thoughtless, or a boy that is wild,
My heart echoes sadly: 'tis some mother's child.
And when I see those o'er whom long years
Have rolled,
Whose hearts have grown hardened, whose
Spirits are cold,
Be it woman all fallen, or man all defiled,
A voice whispers sadly, "Ah! some mother's child."
No matter how far from the right she hath strayed;
No matter what inroads dishonor hath made;
No matter what element cankered the pearl;
Though tarnished and sullied, she's some mother's girl.
No matter how wayward his footsteps have been;
No matter how deep he is sunk in sin;
No matter how low is his standard of joy;
Though guilty and loathsome, he's some mother's boy.
That head hath been pillowed on tenderest breast;
That form hath been wept o'er, those lips have been pressed;
That soul hath been prayed for in tones sweet and mild;
For her sake deal gently with "some mother's child."
—Larkin Mullins in Richmond (Ky.) Register.

STRAY SHOTS.

Daniel James, of Bushton, Ill., has been trading in real estate this winter, and is now the owner of one of the best small farms in Coles county, Ill.

Trimble & Turner, of Mt. Sterling, are doing a good business in horses and mules in Memphis, Tenn., having sold several car loads during the season.

Howard Trimble, formerly of Menifee county, is now located in Kansas. His brother, Thomas, has just finished his school in Illinois, and is now visiting his father's family at Pomeroyton.

Frank Combs, formerly of Clemm, of Terre Haute, Ind., is nearly blind and financially on his last legs. He is thinking of taking his invalid wife and going back to Kentucky to spend the remainder of his days "with his people."

King Cotton is again on top. One year ago the fleecy staple was selling at 5 cents a pound, but at present it is quoted at 10c. It will mean millions of dollars to the south, whose financial condition is now said to be the best since the war. With expansion and the Nicaragua canal the south will again be the most prosperous section of the western world.

Harlan and Clarence Swango, Swango, Ill., are engaging in breeding Hereford cattle. All their herd are pedigreed and they have some very fine animals. They recently purchased a registered bull for $800. He weighed 2000 pounds. They sold their calves at weaning time last year at an average of about $100 per head, the most of them going to cattle ranches in Texas.

Wigfall O'Hair, of Paris, Ill., has handled over 18,000 head of cattle in the last two years and only lost two head. The past season he has handled 1,000 head of mules. Besides being the biggest stockman in that section of the state he is also the best hunter, and his kennel contains fox hounds that could not be bought for $100. His hunting horse is Kentucky bred, and few fences stand in his way when he is giving reward a chase.

Poor old Kentucky! During the last four years of her only Republican rule her treasury has been plundered, her revenues depleted, her school fund diminished and her good name everlastingly disgraced. It will take the people of that state a generation to retrieve her former prestige and set the commonwealth right before the country at large. In traveling over a half-dozen states recently, your correspondent has yet to find a man who does not condemn the action of Taylor and his armed assassins.

PAPER TRUST

A Menace To Education—Repeal of Duties Proposed.

The newspaper man of the country will rejoice to learn that Representative Devries, of California, recently introduced a joint resolution with object of the repeal of duties on white or printing paper and the material from which it is made, and directing the attorney-general to proceed under the anti-trust law against those maintaining a monopoly in such paper and material. The resolutions recite that the existing duty of 80 per ton greatly aids in the maintenance of the monopoly; that the price of paper has been increased 60 per cent to the consumer, and this result is a menace to popular education and the dissemination of information.

IN DEFENSE OF OUR MOUNTAINS

Richard T. Jacob Tells of a 500 Mile Trip Through Northern Kentucky and of His Hospitable Treatment.

In the year 1882, as a candidate for the clerk of the court of appeals against Capt. Tom Henry, I made a circuit of 1, I think, fully five hundred miles through Southeastern Kentucky. I had already traveled a considerable distance in North eastern Kentucky. Necessarily I came in contact with a large number of the people of those who voted for and those who voted against me, and in these days of vituperation and abuse of these noble people I feel that it is a duty I owe to them to lift up my humble voice in their behalf irrespective of their party proclivities.

At Mt. Vernon when I went to settle my bill I was told that it was already attended to for both myself and animal. A gentleman next day went fifteen miles so I could not lose my way to a speaking appointment in Jackson county. A gentleman took me to his house to stay that night. As he approached his cabin he said, "My home is humble, my fare poor, but (with the air of a Chesterfield) such as it is it is at your service." I told him that as a soldier I had been accustomed to hard service and hard fare, but that his cordial welcome was more to me than the best of houses and fare without it. He then asked me to lie down, as I looked tired and needed rest, while his wife prepared food. I mention this particularly, as it was what happened through the whole 500 miles. The genial, kind, chivalrous welcome everywhere, without a cent of cost, as they would have regarded it as an insult to have offered it.

Now in regard to the slur of that local paper about their filling up on bad liquor. To my astonishment and I think from memory that the whole of that 500 miles in every town and village was under local option law. As I did not use stimulants, that did not set me back. My distinct recollection is that I saw in the whole journey but one drunken man, and this did not differ until I got into bluegrass region at Richmond, Ky. "To the stranger within their gates" they were chivalrous beyond degree.

A democrat, that is, one who opposed me, as I was an independent democrat at the time, and who rode with me to my next appointment from Pikeville, asked me if I had not noticed some little stir while I was speaking at that place. I answered yes. He said some persons without thought wanted to get a half-witted fellow to answer me. Then my opponents went to them and said I was a gentleman and that I should not be insulted. It was not only at that point, but at all points.

In Northeastern Kentucky one evening a drunken man commenced interrupting me. I noticed two gentlemen go and take a seat by him. I was told afterward they said to him, "We will throw you out if you don't keep quiet." In one of the Athens of the state during a speech I was not at all well, and was very much annoyed by a drunken man and exhibited my annoyance, and that appeared to please the crowd, and they cheered with him. Among the chivalrous and noble people of the mountains this would not have been permitted for one moment. We may well take a lesson from them for our great benefit.

They are spoken of as red handed murderers and of shooting men from ambush. They are quick-tempered, and some of this charge is too true. Is this any truer of them than day by day the papers here and in all parts of the state speak of cowardly and dastardly murders. Unfortunately this is true, not only of the mountains in this state, but every state in the Union. The purifying influence of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is needed not only in the mountains of Kentucky, but all over this great country. Dr. Guerrant and other noble soul-winners, irrespective of creeds, are preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the men of the mountains, and when they are fully imbued with it these clashes of temper and violence will cease. In the meantime, "let people who live in glass houses" not cast the first stone. The complaint is that the mountain men went armed to Frankfort with their Winchester in their hands and pistols to their sides. Which is the highest ideal, the man who openly exposes his weapons, and that in accordance with law, or the man who violates law and has his pockets concealed, with perfect arsenal, and I doubt if there was scarcely a man in Frankfort but was weighed down with weapons. When men think their lives in danger, self-preservation requires them to be prepared. They claim that a mountain man shot Mr. Gabel. I don't believe it, and will not until it is proven beyond a shadow of doubt. I have my theories, which are not necessary to bring forward. Noble, generous and disposed to conserve the rights of all, are the brave men of the mountains. Full of dignity, and the most hospitable people on earth, I have always felt and believed that, and have given my testimony to this effect, before.—[Richard T. Jacob in Louisville Post.

Why is 1900 Not Leapyear?

There is more than one end-of-the-century puzzle. Not many persons are equipped to answer the puzzling questions which have already begun to be put as to why the present year is not a leap year, says the Denver Times. Leap year, as everybody knows, occurs once in four years. It is four years since the last one. Then why should the "leap" be missed from 1900? Here is the simple solution:

Of course, it is not exactly true that there are 365 days in the year. As a matter of fact, the number is 365.242.236. This amounts almost to an extra quarter of a day. Julius Caesar believed that he was evening matters up when he estimated that this extra time, unaccounted for in the calendar, would in four years amount to one day, and he, therefore, originated leap year or the insertion of an extra day once in four years.

This was all very well, but not quite exact. That is to say, according to Caesar's arrangement, 00744 of a day, or 669 seconds, was falsely added to every year. After 129 years this amounted to one whole day. As the centuries passed the error grew larger, until finally, in the Sixteenth century, it amounted to 12 days. Then Pope Gregory XIII undertook the revision of the Julian calendar and got rid of these 12 days by suppressing leap years for three consecutive centuries and deciding that every fourth century should be leap.

There were riots in opposition to the new calendar; in fact, the Greek church still uses the old one.

The years 1700 and 1800, which by ordinary rotation of four years should be leap, were not, so this year 1900 will only have 365 days instead of 366 days. But the year 2000 will be a leap year.

Everybody knows that a year is leap as soon as the two last figures of its thousands are divisible by 4; 1874, 1888, 1892 and 1896 were leap years, the numbers 72, 88, 92 and 96 being divisible by 4.

The years 2100, 2200 and 2300 will not be leap; the years 2000 and 2400 will be.

This Gregorian calendar will keep the seasons accurate enough for all practical purposes for a hundred thousand years.

After that we may have to make new arrangements.

Great opportunity offered to good, reliable men. Salary of $15 per week and expenses for man with rig to introduce our Poultry Mixture and Insect Destroyer in the country. Send stamp, American Mfg. Co., Terre Haute, Ind.

1,000,000 DEATHS! FROM CHOLERA DURING THE PAST YEAR.

The Germs of this Fatal Disease are Lurking Everywhere! Thousands of Dollars Saved by This Wonderful Discovery.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars has been lost in the poultry business on account of the devastation among the flocks caused by cholera, croup, gape and other fatal diseases. There have been many remedies advanced, but none seem to be so successful as the American Poultry Mixture. This will cure chickens in the last stage of cholera and roup, and is excellent for gapes. Do your fowls suffer from violent diarrhea, dropping of the wings, stupor or excessive thirst? These are the first symptoms of cholera. Cholera is a germ disease and being infectious spreads rapidly through the entire flock. Take time by the forelock; don't stop to experiment with unreliable or untried remedies. Use this mixture at once and the sanitary measures they recommend in connection. Don't give the fowls up. Cholera is a terrible disease but this remedy cures it every time. It is also guaranteed for roop, which can be told by hoarse breathing, swelled eyes, discharge at the nostrils, resembling catarrh. Fifty dollars is offered for any case the Mixture will not cure. If some of your fowls are diseased it will prevent the rest from catching it. Try it. It is cheap, reliable and effective; a scientific preparation, goes more than three times as far as any other remedy; does more good than all of them combined. It is used and endorsed by the most experienced and largest breeders of plain and fancy poultry in all parts of the world. The manufacturers guarantee every package or refund purchase money. If your druggist don't sell American Poultry Mixture, he's behind the age. In that case send $1.00 for sample box to American Mfg. Co., Terre Haute, Ind.

GIVES STRENGTH AND VIGOR.

30 Days' Trial

The marvellous power exerted by my Electric Belt and Appliances, induces me to offer it to suffering men on 30 Days' Trial, so certain and that it will cure and that you will gladly pay for the use of it. To men who have battered their stomachs with drugs I want them to exercise their judgment and consider that Electricity is the greatest power on earth. He who sees current puts life and force into whatever it touches. The constant, steady life extended by my New Electric Appliances gives instant relief and never fails to cure Rheumatism, Backache, Kidney Troubles, Early Decay, Night Sweats, Lack of Nerve Force and Vigor, Nervous Debility, Underdevelopment and Lost Vitality. You may not have faith in it now, but WEAR IT FOR 30 DAYS and you will then realize why I have such confidence in it as to send it to you ON TRIAL. Write today for Illustrated Pamphlet with references and signed testimonials. Sent free in plain sealed envelope.

PROF. A. CHRYSTAL, Inventor, Marshall, Mich.

To Whom It May Concern:

The Ohio and Kentucky Railway Company has filed in the offices of the County Clerks of Breckinridge, Wolfe and Morgan counties, Kentucky, the maps required by law, showing the location of its railroad, and property lines are indicated thereon. Such railroad is now under contracts for construction.

Where rights-of-way have been acquired by contract, agreement, purchase or condemnation, the parties from whom same were obtained, and all other persons in any manner interested in any land covered by the right-of-way strip, or in property adjacent thereto, are hereby notified that the grading of the railroad is now in progress, and will be continuously prosecuted to completion.

The editor of THE HERALD would be delighted to hear that a dozen of his friends in different parts of the county are in the saddle soliciting subscriptions to THE HERALD, and working as earnestly in the matter as they do before election when they are soliciting votes for their favorite candidate. That would indeed be glorious news, and why should it not come to pass? When a dozen of our friends read this they have our consent to constitute themselves a committee and go at once to work. "But, hold on," suggests the imp of the office, "maybe you haven't got the dozen friends, and maybe that's the reason." The exclamation paralyzed us, we succumbed, utterly disheartened and disgusted. But hope springs eternal in the human breast and prompts us to ask you, dear reader, if you will be one of such a dozen?

GEN. OTIS said it is simply outrageous that the insurgents should begin fighting again just as he had them hopelessly scattered. The blamed cusses ought to stay whipped.

The gold bill has become a law, with a small streak of silver in it.

The late Kentucky legislature was the most expensive that ever assembled in the state. Very little legislation was done and that which was enacted had better have been left undone. Every act of that assembly tended to throttle the tax-payer and in the sweet subsequently he will swear—well, yes, he'll swear in every tongue of language he can command. Two bills—only two, mind, call for the expenditure of $100,000 each. And for what? Half of this sum is to defray the expense of detecting the murderers of Gov. Goebel and the other $100,000 is to arm and equip a new state guard—or, more likely to create some fat offices for the young men who are afflicted with that delightful disease diagnosed as "elegance of ease." But in country folk lore known as laziness. Add to this $200,000 the cost of maintaining a standing army, the junketing trips of the legislature, etc., and the aggregate is amazingly appalling. The murderer of Gov. Goebel should without doubt be hunted down and hung, but a much less sum would have answered all purposes—aye, have been more effective. And, as to the other $100,000 that was altogether uncalled for. When our present troubles end and Kentucky is once more her normal self, a state guard can be organized and the arms now in use utilized.—Kentucky is too poor a state to squander money in this wanton and reckless manner, and the burden is more than the tax-payer can bear.

The Morning Herald, published at Lexington, under the able management of Desha Breckinridge, has become one of the best papers in Kentucky, and the editorials which appear in it from day to day are unsurpassed in elegance of diction and directness of application. They are the product of his distinguished father, Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, and are so forceful as to call forth praise from the elite press of the east. But we are talking of Desha Breckinridge and the ability he has acquired in adding to the business of that paper and its improvement. He has made it a newspaper in the full sense of that term, and yet it is as clean in tone as the Topeka Capital, now being published on Christie lines by the Rev. Chas. Sheldon. Mr. Breckinridge is "up with the lark" in all modern ways of attracting business. Just now he has a scheme to send one young lady to the Paris exposition, for another a two weeks' stay at Hotel Chamberlain, Old Point Comfort, Va., for a third one a two weeks' stay at Rockcastle Springs, Ky., and for the fourth lady a week's stay at Torrent, Ky. The lucky ladies will be decided by ballot, and there are 49 contestants. For the two weeks ending Saturday night, the 17th, there had been 13,215 votes cast, which gives some idea of the circulation of the paper as each of the contestants received some votes. The expense to The Herald in the four trips mentioned will be about $500, but the increasing circulation justifies the outlay. Mr. Breckinridge is also the publisher of the Kentucky Stock Farm, devoted to the trotting and harness horse interests of the state, and he will make of that paper the same success he has of the Morning Herald. Send for free sample copies of both papers and learn all about them.

Under the caption, "In defense of our mountains," there is a lengthy article in this paper from the pen of Col. Richard T. Jacobs, ex-lieutenant governor, in which he refutes the charges made against the mountain people in the metropolitan press. The editor of this paper had the honor of serving 12 months in the 9th Kentucky cavalry, commanded by Col. Jacob, and he is today proud to know that the colonel is still the same humane honest gentleman in civil life that he was as a soldier. As a soldier and an officer every enlisted man and every subordinate officer in the regiment loved Col. Jacob. He was a kind, good man in those days, and we hope he may live to a ripe old age.

There are two sides to the Porto Rican question, but the republicans in congress are on one side and the whole American people are on the other.

THE HERALD for $1.00 a year.

The tenth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will be held at Louisville, Ky., May 30 31 and June 1, 2 and 3, 1900, and it is thought that the crowd which will be brought together on that occasion may be even greater than that of the grand encampment of the G. A. R., held at the same place only a few years since. Wolfe county will send her quota, and to that end Capt. Lykins has issued an order assembling all the Confederate Veterans in Wolfe county at Campton on April 2nd. All honorably discharged Union Veterans are cordially invited to attend the Campton meeting, and for one the editor of this paper will certainly attend if the circumstances and his state of health permit. We know we should enjoy it. But read Capt. Lykins' order and let there be a full attendance of Cox Camp.

CONFEDERATE VETERAN ASSOCIATION OF KENTUCKY.
GEORGE W. COX CAMP, No. 433.
CAMPTON, KY., March 18, 1900.
General Order.

It is hereby ordered that the members of George W. Cox Camp, No. 433, of the Confederate Veteran Association of Kentucky will meet at Campton, Wolfe county, Ky., on Monday, April 2, 1900, at 1 o'clock p. m., to make such arrangements as appear necessary for attending the tenth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans at Louisville, Ky., May 30 31, June 1, 2 and 3, 1900.

And all honorably discharged Union soldiers are cordially invited to attend.
JOSEPH C. LYKINS, Capt.
Commanding Cox Camp, No. 433.

The present congress should pass a bill to exempt paper and all raw material entering into the manufacture of paper from all duty. The paper manufacturers of this country have formed a trust and doubled the price of newspaper within the last few months. The blow falls heavily upon the country newspaper especially, and is a solar plexus hit at education, for, in a general way there is no element of education so broad as the newspaper. After mastering the A. B. C.'s many of the best business men of the country have attained their education through reading newspapers. To increase the cost of paper will work a serious hardship upon the poor country publisher, and unless he commands a good subscription and advertising patronage, he must ultimately go to the wall. The attention of Senators Deboe and Lindsay, and Congressman Tom Fitzpatrick and the others in the Kentucky delegation, should lend their assistance to any measure that will weaken the trust in its effort to throttle the press of the country.

NOTICE

To Administrators and Guardians.

The law requires that all Administrators shall make settlement with the County Court within two years from their appointment, and that all Guardians shall file an inventory of the real and personal estate of their wards within 60 days as a basis for a settlement, and make settlement within 60 days after the expiration of a year from their appointment, and in as much as this law has not been strictly complied with, I now warn all Administrators and Guardians that they must comply with the law at once. Given under my hand this Feb. 17, 1900.

Great Offer. From now to Dec. 1903, Nearly 5 Years.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for THE HERALD one year ahead for only $1.00 both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now until December 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

This offer should be accepted without delay.

Uncle Pres Trimble had a ham stolen from him on Monday night of last week.

Wiley Perkins attended court at Mt. Sterling on Monday, but did not take down any stock.

Nathan Hollon, of Lane, passed through here Saturday, en route to visit Harry Murphy, of the Murphy fork.

Harlan Power, of Salversville, spent Sunday night with his brother-in-law, Wiley Perkins, Lacy creek.

FOUND—A purse containing 55c and key. Owner can get by calling on John Davis and paying 10c for this notice.

H. F. Pieratt on Monday sold to Alex (Dob) Higgins, colored, a gray mare about 10 years old for $32, equivalent to cash.

Red river was on a boom Monday and ties and staves are scattered from Lee City, in this county, to Clay City, Powell county.

The Day roller mill is this week up on grinding wheat for the first time since July, and part of that time the mill was run night and day.

LOOK OUT for the first signs of impure blood—Hood's Sarsaparilla is your safeguard. It will purify, enrich and vitalize your BLOOD.

Matt Sloan, the man who was hurt in the row at Lee City a week or so ago, was on Monday said to be better. Dr. Taulbee, his attending physician, was here on Monday, and so reported.

Eliza James last week sold to Monroe Nickell a strip of land, about three-fourths of an acre, lying in Dickville, and adjoining the property Mr. Nickell bought of F. M. Long for $100 cash.

The John H. Morgan Camp, No. 1198, Frisco, California, has written that it will attend the Confederate Reunion, in Louisville, May 30-31, June 1-2-3. They are coming east and west and north and south.

F. M. Long last Friday sold his steam saw mill to J. B. Amyx, of Sellers, and the latter will remove it about May 1. Uncle Dick will first finish his contract with Henry Pieratt, which will take until that time.

Uncle Jeff Rose, of Stillwater, was here Saturday and said he was still a candidate for assessor and would announce in THE HERALD soon. When he does we will throw him a bouquet of sweet smelling flowers.

Sam Taulbee was in town Monday and told "our man about town" that the 60 hands at the tunnel near Major Taulbee's, through the ridge dividing Caney and Red river, are all lying idle and waiting for the sunshine.

Wiley Perkins had the good fortune to have his herd of cattle increased on Monday night by the birth of three male calves, and all of them deep red, without a white hair. You can't keep a good man down, nohow.

F. M. Long got judgment against N. L. Ware at the last term of the circuit court on a material lien, in the sum of $236.60, and Commissioner Vansant offers the property for sale on Monday, April 2nd. Prof. Cord bought the property from Mr. Ware and now occupies it as a residence. But the presumption is that he will lose nothing in the transaction.

We this week mail THE HERALD to Geo. Taulbee, our former bright and interesting Lee City correspondent, who is now a corporal in Co. F, of the 12th United States infantry, and confidently expect to publish a letter from him at least once a month, or as often as he can get one to us. Such a letter would be especially interesting to the people of this section, and we suggest to him that he in such letter give a paragraph to each of the boys from this section who are now in the army around Manila. There are at least 20 or 30 boys from this and adjoining counties, and the people here would indeed be proud to hear from them as often as he could write. But George will realize the importance of this news and we shall expect a stunning letter every time he can write. Send one on receipt of this, George.

A telephone message was received at this place on Saturday morning, announcing the death of Mrs. Eliza Trimble on Friday night. Her death was very sudden and presumably from heart disease, but we are without particulars. Mrs. Trimble was the widow of Asbury Trimble, who was killed by Edward Hensley in this place in 1864, and was a brother of Uncle Pres. J. G. Frank, et al. Mrs. Trimble was also the mother of South Trimble, the present speaker of the house, and was a daughter of Jerry South, warden of the Kentucky penitentiary at Frankfort for several years.

On Friday night last some of the young people of our town gave Miss Cross, the music teacher at the academy, a little surprise party in the way of a candy pulling. The young men furnished the sugar and the young ladies by deft manipulation got it into toothsome candy, sweetly succulent. Those who participated were Misses Maggie Kash, Ora Swango and Nannie Bayes, the gentlemen being W. H. Kash, Curtis Rose, Sam Nickell and John Bayes. The scene of the event was the dormitory, mine host, Q. C. Daniel, and all went merry as a marriage bell.

Some thief entered the residence of Preacher Pike, on Sunday night the 11th inst., and stole three hams. They effected an entrance through a window that had a light broken out and a piece of cloth tacked over it. Mr. Pike thinks the culprit was a boy or a woman, as the tracks were smaller than a man would make. The general opinion, and we heartily endorse it, is that a man who would steal from a poor preacher dependent upon his parishioners for a support, would commit any crime in the calendar—do anything that is mean—even to throwing rocks at his grandmother.

A new law firm has just been formed in our town, the title of which is Kash & Kash, and the star performers are Rollin A. Kash and Wm. H. Kash. The first named gentleman slung his shingle to the breeze a year or so since, but the latter was only recently admitted to the bar. These young men are both capable and deserving disciples of Blackstone, and should receive a fair share of the patronage of this section. By their card in this paper it will be seen that they make collections a specialty, and non residents will do well to communicate with them.

The time of all who subscribed for THE HERALD March 4, is now out and they are respectfully urged to renew at once and take advantage of our club rate with the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal for 12 months, the Farm Journal, every month until end of December, 1901, and THE HERALD for 12 months. ALL FOR $1

Tom Graham, who moved from Gillmore creek to Floyd, Hunt county Texas, some five years ago, paid a flying visit to his old home last week, arriving on Wednesday and leaving on Friday. He had been to Virginia on business, and coming back by way of Lexington, he felt that he could not resist the temptation to pay his old neighborhood a visit, and therefore ran in as stated. He likes his western home very well, but says a man has to hustle. His wife is becoming reconciled to the situation, though until recently she was never satisfied. Tom says he planted six acres of oats and after selling $90 worth still had sufficient left for seed.

The amount required to keep the academy at Hazel Green, about $1,000, was subscribed on Monday and when counted up was found to exceed that sum. Our people are slow to move, but when aroused will contribute liberally as the excess in this instance demonstrates. The matter now goes before the national board of the C. W. B. M. at Indianapolis for final adjustment, and it is confidently hoped and believed that, considering the fact that the school was founded and has grown up at this place and is so well and favorably known throughout the length and breadth of the land, Hazel Green will retain it. Tell it to the people everywhere.

Mrs. Emily Lacy on Sunday killed a fat hen that had formerly been an extraordinary good layer. Thinking to ascertain the reason she had ceased to lay while in apparent good health, she made a close examination while dressing her to cook, and discovered a needle lying crosswise of the egg bag. That, of course, was the impediment to her usefulness, but it in no wise detracted from her edible qualities as a dinner dish, for she was as fat as could be.

"An Old Friend" is the title of Truth's supplement for March. This fine picture is a reproduction from the original painting by William Verplanck Birney, and is charming not only by reason of its sentiment, but because it is thoroughly characteristic of this painter's vigorous work. In size the picture is 17 1/2 by 25, and is printed on heavy, rough coated paper, suitable for framing.

HAZEL GREEN COLLEGE.

BY SAM WILSON.

You may talk about your colleges
Where knowledge most profound
Is stamped upon the pupil's mind
In cities much renowned.
But grander far is one I know
That decks the mountain scene,
And has ever been the beacon light
Of dear old Hazel Green.

It is a school where every youth
Can on life's after march
Point back with pride to where their
Thoughts, refined, were born.
And bless the hour when they first bathed
In wisdom's well, serene,
And drank at founts of learning from
The college of Hazel Green.

Still let its glories ever spread
Throughout Kentucky's clime,
Still let it be our pure delight
And principle divine,
Still let its teachings be to all
The purest, brightest beam,
Still let us strive to keep it here—
The college of Hazel Green.

The boys and girls should read the Farm Journal. It will help keep them on the farm. We will send it five years, the remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, to every one who will subscribe for THE HERALD; both papers at the price of ours only.

Judge G. B. Swango attended the burial of Gov. Goebel at Frankfort last week, and was one of the few permitted to see the face of the dead statesman. He also acted as pall bearer in moving the remains from the vault to the grave.

F. M. Long last week sold a house and lot in Dickville, a suburb of Hazel Green, to Monroe Nickell. The house contains five rooms and the lot is about 80x30 feet. Consideration $200.

Willie Alexander on Monday bought of J. T. Day a pair of dun mare mules, four and five years old and full sisters, for $150 cash. This was perhaps the best matched pair of mules in Eastern Kentucky, if not in the state, and they stood 15 and 15 1/2 hands high, respectively.

Mrs. Holly Nickell, of Gillmore creek, was reported sick on Monday. "Our man about town" did not learn the nature of her illness, but she was sufficiently so to require the services of a physician, and Railroad Physician Taulbee was called to see her.

Agents on salary $15.00 per week and expenses; the greatest agent seller ever produced; every stock and poultry raiser buys it on sight. Hustlers wanted. Reference. Address, with stamp, American Mfg. Co., Terre Haute, Ind. tf.

OUR GLORIOUS COUNTRY.

Have you watched its marvelous growth? If not, The Weekly Enquirer wants to study the strides it has made. The first census of the United States was taken in 1810. Since then every succeeding ten years. The result has been as follows:

Year.	Population.	Year.	Population.
1810.....	7,239,981	1860.....	31,443,321
1820.....	9,633,822	1870.....	38,558,371
1830.....	12,866,020	1880.....	50,155,783
1840.....	17,069,453	1890.....	62,622,250
1850.....	23,191,876

Here you have the figures of a basis of calculation. The problem now is: What will be the population of the United States, excluding recent acquisitions. The result is usually announced in July of the census year.

THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER is anxious to engage all in a study of their country. To this end it will distribute cash amounting to $25,000, for solutions received of the population of the United States Census, as follows:

To the first nearest correct guess received.	$3,000.00
To the second.....	1,500.00
To the third.....	750.00
To the fourth.....	500.00
To the fifth.....	250.00
To the sixth.....	200.00
To the seventh.....	150.00
To the next 10, each $100, amounting to.	1,000.00
To the next 50, each $50, amounting to.	2,500.00
To the next 100, each $25, amounting to.	2,500.00
To the next 500, each $10, amounting to.	5,000.00
To the next 1,000, each $5, amounting to.	7,500.00

2197 cash presents amounting to $25,000.00

In case of a tie, money equally divided.

OLD PAPERS, Clean and Nice, for sale

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also a convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It cures inability to hold water and swelling pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up often during the night, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are diligent in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favor they put us to great inconvenience.

DAYSBORO DOINGS.

John Amys, of Sellers, was in Daysboro Saturday.

Frank Duke has purchased a fine bluegrass jack.

Uncle Amos Nickell is able to get out to church again.

Bob Brooks left here Monday for a visit to Menefee county.

Tom Amys has rented his State road farm to a Mr. Handy.

Frank Wilson, of the Red River fork, was in Daysboro Sunday.

George Oldfield has employed a first-class coal digger for this year.

Pete Everett Gullet, of Lee City, was attending church here Sunday.

Miss Jennie Amys, of Sellers was attending church here Sunday.

Wayne Parks sold to Ves Norman a short two-year-old heifer for $20.

Clay Little, of Gillmore, has been visiting in Daysboro for a few days.

Mrs. A. M. Nickell, of Hazel Green, was visiting in Daysboro Sunday.

Wm. Esterling moved from Grassy to the farm of T. J. Amys in the deep hollow.

Miss Rosa Trimble, of Lacy creek, was visiting Miss Francis Fadden Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Fannie Osborn, of Morgan county, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duke a few days this week.

Ves Norman one day last week sold to Wayne Parks five acres of land adjoining Antony Fergusons for $100.

Jeff Onay, of Lacy creek, was in Daysboro Sunday, and was trying to show Walter Maloney all the sights.

South Stamper has rented his Amys farm to a trio of working men, Bruce Nickell, Wayne and Jim Parks.

Misses Sallie and Mollie Onay, Mollie Swango and Corrie Bas, all of the Swango Springs have been enjoying the meeting here.

Alie James, Jim Trimble, Shellie James, Curtis Rose, Jim Lacy and Boon Lacy, all of Lacy creek, have been attending church here for a few days.

Henry Miles will move this week to the Caney tunnel, and will at once begin work. Henry is an old miner and loves to burrow in the ground.

The "two Roses," of Lacy creek, we mean two of the charming daughters of Jo P. Ross, Misses Lillie and Stella, graced our little village with their presence Sunday.

There has been a meeting in progress here at the White school house conducted by Revs. Pike, Davis and Mrs. Ellen Swango. An unusual interest is being manifested, quite a number having professed sanctification or holiness.

Woodson Little being a good friend of ours, we would love to state that Woodson was not at fault in that disturbance at Lee City a few days ago in which he hit Mr. Sloan. From the best information we can get Mr. Sloan first started a "rough house."

Quite a number of Hazel Green beauties have been visiting in Daysboro in the past week. Among them we noticed Misses Elsa and May Nickell, Mary and Corda Brennenman, Pearl Day, Nevada Nickell and Clark Long.

Bud Little informs us that an Indian and the colored folks have been holding a meeting at the colored school house. But who ever heard of an Indian that would preach to a Negro or to any one else as to that matter.

The "Drake" said last week that he was in possession of a valentine that "Charlie" had wrote. He surely does not mean me, for I never did try to write but one and that was so many years ago that all the young folks cannot recollect it. But then as the D. A. is a kind of an incubating bird, I will leave him be for a month or two.

Boon Lacy, of Lacy creek, who has been doing the cooking for Jim Lacy Jr., for quite a while, came over to Daysboro one day this week to inform the friends of Jim that he had not been seen for several days. But we learned that Boon has located him somewhere in the neighborhood of the Swango Springs.

He Would Have No Other Kind.

John Miller, of Walnut Grove (better known as Caney,) Morgan county, was down on Wednesday to see Rose & Davis and get them to build him a road wagon. Three years ago he had them build him a wagon at a cost of $60, which he used continuously until a week or two days ago and then sold for $45. At his home he can get one built for $55, but he says he would rather have one made by Rose & Davis at $65, and if they could not build him one he would do the next best thing and buy from some one a wagon recently made by this firm, which, as wagon builders he thinks have no superiors. This speaks volumes for the workmanship of these gentlemen, and is prima facie evidence that they use only the best material in the construction of their vehicles. Every man who has used a wagon made by this firm is practically as warm in praise of the workmanship and material used by them, but not so profuse perhaps. However, they are all united in the opinion that if they would enlarge their plant and confine themselves to wagon building, they could and would soon monopolize the trade of the mountains. Orders ahead precluded the possibility of making Mr. Miller a wagon for some time, and he started out to buy one, as no other kind would suit him. He had his eye on two or three recently put up, and hoped to get one of them.

Music in the Air.

G. L. Sheppard and Eugene Harvey, two Winchester darkeys, who are employed on the railroad at the tunnel under Decret & Gill, contractors, paid our town a visit on Tuesday last and treated the citizens of this place to some of the finest instrumental music ever heard here and as good perhaps as was ever heard anywhere. The instruments they used in rendering this sweet music were French harps, but their music was so much better than ever heard here before that those who heard them pronounced them artists in their line. We always knew that Winchester was a good town, and contained many of the good things of this life, but we never before knew that it had such musicians. They took our town by storm and the music wafted on the breeze is still in the air.

They Have Located.

Under date of the 15th inst., Mrs. Maggie Kash writes from Burdette, Bates county, Mo., to have paper sent to that place, as they have concluded to locate there permanently. Her husband, Dr. Silas Kash, has had several calls and they think the prospect quite good. She wants all the back numbers of the "dear old HERALD" since they left, but we find it impossible to send any one of them. She promises to write again as soon as they get settled down. They are hoarding at present, but will soon go to housekeeping. They send love to all inquiring friends, and hope through the paper to hear that all of Hazel Green's citizens are well.

The Y. P. S. C. E. roll has 50 members. The weekly prayer-meeting is held at the Christian church Saturday at 7:30 p. m. The following are the officers: President, Miss Mabel Gray Cross; Vice President, John R. Bays; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Nannie Mangel; Recording Secretary, Noah Cisco; Treasurer, Mrs. Dora Swango.

Elder Jim Tom Peratro is on route home and was at Waco, Mo., with his brother-in-law, Jim Cox, about a week since. From there they will go to Bush ton, Ill., to visit Mike Murphy and family, and thence home. They will arrive here about the first of April.

Mrs. Lizzie Kash, mother of Edgar and C. F. Kash, is said to be dangerously ill at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Millard Ritchie, of Maytown. I was reported yesterday that she would probably not live throughout the day. She has consumption.

John Savage, the painter, coal miner and general utility man, who has journeyed here for a year or so, on Tuesday moved to Lee City, where he has engaged to do some painting for Allison R. and others.

Rev. H. D. Adams returned Monday from Frenchburg, where he preached on Sunday. He will preach at Old Grassy church on Saturday night and Sunday morning and afternoon.

Mrs. Eliza Kash and daughter, Miss Maggie, left for Jackson Tuesday for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Day, of indefinite duration. Dr. Kash has been there for some time.

Topics for sermons Sunday at the Christian church are "Jesus as He was and as He is" at 11 a. m., and "Soul Preservation" at 7:30 p. m. You are invited to attend both sermons.

Cal Cundiff tells us that 1,000 or more ties and staves were run out of Laurel on Sunday's tide.

Have you dried apples for sale? We should like to have a half-bushel.

Biggie Berry Book is an excellent little manual worthy of a place in every farmer's library. The book is condensed and practical, as valuable for the villager with his 10x12 berry patch as it is for the commercial berry grower with his twenty-acre field. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co. Philadelphia.

Mrs. Frank Cravens died at her home near Mt. Sterling on Monday, the 12th inst., of consumption. Mrs. Craven's maiden name was Lizzie Lykins, who was quite well known in this section, and many will regret to hear of her death.

The items about meat stealing should have appeared in THE HERALD of last week, and would have done so had they been reported. Why is it that the people will not report such things? Had these items appeared last week the thief or thieves might ere this have been apprehended.

FOR SALE.—My farm of 19 1/2 acres near Levee, Ky. One thousand ($1,000) dollars down, balance in two years. Will meet parties at Clay City who desire to look at place. W. M. Wilson, Levee, Ky.

Mrs. John M. Rose is at West Liberty at the bedside of her brother, Chap Swango, who is dangerously ill with fever. Indeed there is but slight hope of his recovery.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

French Jones has accepted the position of deputy postmaster at Hazel Green, and is now reading postal cards and watching for the billet duex that pass between the belles and beaux of this section.

Don't forget that you can have the Courier-Journal or Dispatch and THE HERALD one year for only $1.00 cash in advance, and besides we will send you the Farm Journal until the end of the 1904.

Bud Swango, of Stillwater, and Curt Rose, of this place, went to West Liberty Sunday, spent the night watching at the bedside of Chap Swango, and returned home on Monday.

Park Bullock, of Estill county, has moved to the Caney side of the tunnel, on the Ohio and Kentucky railroad, where he is foreman at a salary of $75 per month.

Geo. Stamper, of the Stamper branch, fell from his barn loft, a week or ten days since and sprained his right wrist so badly that he has since been unable to use it.

The matter of the removal of the academy from this place to Morehead was to be determined by the National C. W. B. M. at Indianapolis Wednesday.

John M. Rose and Ova Swango left yesterday afternoon for West Liberty to attend the bedside of Chap Swango, who is very ill.

Will Gledson, representing the Power Grocery Co., Paris, Ky., was in our town Wednesday interviewing our merchant.

Flem Alexey, of Millers creek, Estill county, recently removed to Laurel, in his county.

Abner Trent, of Laurel, recently removed to Breathitt county.

THE BEST

Food for Intellectual Thought.

No man can read intelligently unless he knows the world. In this time of "wars and rumors of wars" the greatest aid to intelligent thinking and the best food for intellectual thought is that newspaper which is greatest and best.

Important political issues are daily growing more important. An intelligent understanding of the policy of a nation or a great political party is something to be desired, and it is the duty of every citizen to thoroughly inform himself upon the leading topics of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is the greatest and best of all newspapers. Its telegraphic and cable news service exceeds that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and world-distant, fully authenticated facts.

The policies of the great political parties are now being formed and the candidates discussed. Now is the time to subscribe for the best medium of keeping in touch with the whole world—THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC.

No less worthy of attention is THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine. It is replete each issue with the best of special articles written by the best of literary talent. Its beautiful half-tone illustrations have already made it famous and their quality and quantity will be preserved.

News features of absorbing attraction are illustrated and enlarged upon in a manner equal to the high priced magazines. Events of current interest are set forth in entertaining style. There is humor in its pages, too, and for the benefit of the ladies the latest Paris fashions are each week exquisitely illustrated and described. The REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine is a standard.

The subscription price of THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is $1.00 per year. THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine is $1.25 per year. Both papers are now being offered at the low price of $1.50 for one year. To secure this low rate both must be ordered and paid for at the same time. Address all orders to THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis, Mo.

No man can read intelligently unless he knows the world. In this time of "wars and rumors of wars" the greatest aid to intelligent thinking and the best food for intellectual thought is that newspaper which is greatest and best.

Important political issues are daily growing more important. An intelligent understanding of the policy of a nation or a great political party is something to be desired, and it is the duty of every citizen to thoroughly inform himself upon the leading topics of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is the greatest and best of all newspapers. Its telegraphic and cable news service exceeds that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and world-distant, fully authenticated facts.

The policies of the great political parties are now being formed and the candidates discussed. Now is the time to subscribe for the best medium of keeping in touch with the whole world—THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC.

No less worthy of attention is THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine. It is replete each issue with the best of special articles written by the best of literary talent. Its beautiful half-tone illustrations have already made it famous and their quality and quantity will be preserved.

News features of absorbing attraction are illustrated and enlarged upon in a manner equal to the high priced magazines. Events of current interest are set forth in entertaining
